CAREER COMBINATIONS

The new work of the future will involve unique combinations of existing work, often combined with new technology. You are likely to increase your satisfaction and employability if you find ways to combine your highest rated career options.

Your highest rated Occupations have been sorted into related Career Themes (left hand column). List under Career Combinations (right hand column) as many combinations of Career Themes and/or Occupations as possible. Use brainstorming to come up with ideas. It might help to draw lines to link possible combinations of occupations (between and within themes). Be creative and inventive. Ignore realism at this stage. Some combinations will come easily, others will be more challenging to generate. Also brainstorm and link any My Own Career Ideas/Career Dreams with other Occupations/Career Themes. Later you could try asking other people to help you come up with additional combinations, including ones that also link your leisure and lifestyle preferences.*

Career Themes related to highest rated Occupations

Career Themes are work/industry groupings. Your highest rated Occupations may be linked to more than one Career Theme.*

RYAN'S ACTION PLAN GOALS

Goals are more often achieved if action plans are prepared and frequently updated. Use the Action Plan worksheet provided to record a step-by-step plan to research and achieve your goals.

The goals listed below have also been copied into the Action Planner program (which you can access from the career program main menu). Action Planner has a pick-and-click menu of useful tasks/steps and resources linked to each goal. It makes producing a detailed Action Plan and To-Do-List easy. Both reports can be printed and updated. Goal achievement is also more likely if you adopt a positive 'can-do' attitude and look for ways to combine and market your unique strengths and preferences. Also, find ways to bring components of longer term work/learning/life goals (such as preferred skills, people and physical environments) into your life now.
